

WorkStart - College Program Interest Test

General Placement { Test Completed }

INTEREST LEVEL

Business and Economics

Social Sciences and Humanities

Arts and Communications

Science and Technology

Business and Economics { Test Completed }

INTEREST LEVEL

CLICK ON A MAJOR NAME FOR JOB AND CAREER INFORMATION

Public Relations

Management

Marketing: Research and Advertising

Marketing: Sales

Human Resources

Real Estate

Economics

Information Systems

Finance

Accounting

Social Sciences and Humanities { 0 of 168 completed }

Arts and Communications { 0 of 144 completed }

Science and Technology { Test Completed }

INTEREST LEVEL

CLICK ON A MAJOR NAME FOR JOB AND CAREER INFORMATION

Computer Science

Engineering

Geology

Architecture

Physics

Agriculture

Chemistry

Mathematics

Nutrition

Biology

Computer Science - CAREER INFO

The computer is being used in nearly every walk of life. Few industries can be found which do not use computers either directly or indirectly. A computer professional must be prepared to deal with the design and implementation of computer systems. Training in computer science varies among basic systems. The current demand for graduates is high, and the job outlook should remain positive through the next decade.

Related Jobs

Computer Systems Analysts

Job Details

Computer Software Engineers, Systems Software

Job Details

Computer Programmers

Job Details

Computer Software Engineers, Applications

Job Details

Note: Clicking on a link above takes you to the US Government Career Information Network